

Khabiso Ramphoma BChD, MChD

Senior Lecturer and Specialist in Community Dentistry at Sefako Makgatho Health Sciences University in Pretoria, South Africa. Her responsibilities include the training, lecturing and supervision of postgraduate students undertaking diploma or master's degree in dental public health, undergraduate Bachelor of Dental Sciences (BDS), Bachelor of Dental Therapy (BDT) and Bachelor of Oral Hygiene (BOH) students. In her personal capacity, she continues to advocate for oral health services through volunteerism with several organizations and is the current deputy chairperson for an organization called Public Oral Health Forum Advocacy Group.