

Dr. Emeria A. Mugonzibwa Mwanga (Tanzania)

Lecturer, Clinician and currently, the head, Department of Orthodontics, Paedodontics & Community Dentistry, Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS), Dar es Salaam, Tanzania.

Director, MUHAS WHO Collaborating Centre for Primary Oral Health Care, Planning & Research.

Coordinator, MUHAS Finnish-Tanzanian Global Health Course Project.

Basic degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) from the University of Dar es Salaam and PhD qualification in Medicine (Orthodontics) from the Katholieke University of Nijmegen, The Netherlands.

Has 46 publications in the form of abstracts, reports, two chapters and Journal articles on orthodontics, tooth emergence, caries, dental education, trauma, oral habits, temporomandibular joint(s), fluoride, cross infection and HIV.

Member of the following professional associations:

1. Tanzania Dental Association,
2. International Association of Dental Research,
3. Medical Association of Tanzania,
4. Tanzania Public Health Association,
5. Medical Women Association of Tanzania,
6. Netherlands Alumni Association of Tanzania and
7. Rotary International.

Participates in various Committees and Leadership positions.

Happily married to Aloys Mwanamwana Mwanga. Proudly Tanzanian, African and a mother of two boys and three girls, speaks and writes well English, Kiswahili and vernacular mother tongue (Kihaya).