

Prof. Wen-Sheng Rong (China)

Director of Oral Health Promotion

Chinese Stomatological Association (C.S.A.)

Dr. Rong is presently the Director of Oral Health Promotion, Chinese Stomatological Association, Vice-Director of the Administration Office of China Oral Health Foundation, and Professor in the Department of Preventive Dentistry, Peking University, School & Hospital of Stomatology.

Dr. Rong graduated from Peking University and received her Bachelor (1992), Master (1995), and Doctoral Degrees (2003) in Stomatology. She has been trained in the University of Hong Kong from 2001 to 2004, and received her Ph.D. Degree in Dental Public Health in 2004.

She is the Chinese project leader in the FDI Live Learn Laugh international project. She is responsible for and conducting a Chinese national project “Oral Health Promotion and Development in Stomatology in Western Part of China”. She is also a member of expert council for Oral Health Division, Ministry of Health in China.